

Just
Ask
Yuli

by Yulius Efferves

So what you're saying is:
Nothing's changed.

Well not "Nothings".

The way I see it, you've told me something completely useless, and more importantly I have no powers,
you have no powers.

I just haven't figured out why you told me yet since there's nothing I can do about it.

It's been a few days and I still have to eat, sleep, and go to school like a regular person, except I might be crazy,

- and I mean what the heck are you supposed to be anyway? An alien?
Another God? My hallucination?

Like I said, my name is Yulius, sometimes I am false, the scribe, the weaver, you can call me Yuli. It's my duty to guide and assist you, however let's put it this way, I'm many things
but what I am isn't important.

If nothing has happened yet it's because you haven't done anything yet. You think this is a fantasy where everything is set in motion by circumstances outside of your control? This is real life.

If you want to know something you have to ask questions and if you want something to happen, you have to do something about it.

Why does it feel like you never actually answer my questions.

Let's go sit over there.

The Journal of the American Academy of Child and Adolescent Psychiatry is a peer-reviewed journal of research and clinical practice in child and adolescent psychiatry. It is published by the American Academy of Child and Adolescent Psychiatry (AACAP).

WEB
TOON

LINE WEBTOON